

Dwelley Farms

Sweet Corn

Excellent quality and flavor. Due to annual rise in demand, growers now plant ten acres of white for every acre of yellow. Yellow and white corn available by the 48 count case or piece.

Blue Lake Beans

A familiar and popular variety, often called snap or string beans. These Blue Lakes are bright, sweet and tender and should snap when broken apart, revealing the tiny seeds inside. Available by the 30# case or pound.

Baby French Beans

Also known as haricot verts, these beans are smaller than Blue Lakes with sweeter flavor. Available by the 10# case or pound.

Cranberry Beans

A type of 'shelling' bean, cranberry beans are picked fresh from the pod in the same manner as English Peas or Fava Beans. 15# case only.

Romano Beans

Also called Italian flat or Broad beans. Romano beans are large and meaty. They lend well to braising and are perfect for summer minestrone. Available by the 10# case or pound.

Yellow Wax Beans

Another variety of snap bean, usually larger than Blue Lakes, crisp and meaty. Available by the case 10# or pound.

Brentwood, CA

Dwelley Farms, located in Brentwood, CA-26 miles west of Stockton. The Brentwood agricultural area is close to the Sacramento Delta and within view of the Altamont Pass and Mt. Diablo. During the growing season, the area is characterized by hot days and cool nights which result in excellent growing conditions for a variety of fruits and vegetables-tomatoes, squash, beans, corn, cherries, peaches and apricots. Mark Dwelley's family has been farming in the area since the 1920's. Mark has over 30 years experience on the farm and currently has over 800 acres planted to a variety of crops. Purchasing fruits and vegetables directly from local farms ensures longer shelf life as well as a higher degree of quality and freshness. We are pleased to continue our relationship with Dwelley Farms. Enjoy the harvest.
